Text: Matthew 6:11

Security Insight #1: Living a daily life requires our recognition of our overwhelming need.

After this Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiberius. And a large crowd was following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. Lifting up his eyes, then and seeing that a large crowd was coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, so that these people may eat?" He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he would do. –John 6:1-6 (ESV)

Security Insight #2: Living a daily life demands our admission of the inadequacy of our resources to meet our overwhelming need.

Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." –John 6:7 (ESV)

Biblical Observation: In the face of our hunger for wholeness God feeds us through Jesus' use of our limited resources.

One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are they for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, about five thousand in number. –John 6:8-11 (ESV)

Security Promise: Jesus is the bread that gives eternal life when we live with a daily dependence upon Him instead of our limited resources.

So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not as the fathers ate and died, Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever". –John 6:53-58 (ESV)

Give us this day our daily bread. –Matthew 6:11 (ESV)
